he Advertiser!

The Advertiser who would send his message to Western North Carolina's 390,951* people has only to use the columns of the Asheville dailies!

Awaiting him is the $28,557,154.00 yearly retail trade of the city of Asheville . . . plus the additional millions of neighboring towns. Awaiting him, too, is a remarkable reader interest. For The CITIZEN, The TIMES and The Sunday CITIZEN-TIMES are published peculiarly for Western North Carolina—and in return are rewarded with eager reader response.

The Asheville dailies reach this rich market. Furthermore—they are the only medium that does!
